OCTOBER PROGRAMS

10/05 Mary Jane Bruek—from Aldersgate Village spoke on the different levels of care.

10/12 John Ostenson, who is with the Sheriff's dept. spoke about his team going to Gulfport MS.

10/19 Doug Wallace who wrote the book on the history of Tecumseh enlightened the club on the beginnings of Tecumseh, which included it's humorous city ordinances..

10/26 Mitch Gross with Shawnee County Parks & Rec spoke on the programs for seniors and adults at the community center. He is a recreation programmer for amenities and development.

The annual pancake feed and silent auction was a flippin' success. All stacked up, the club served 267 people, including 40 Kiwanis members from six clubs. What great syrup support!

Profits from the pancake feed came to $1014. Projected income from the 55 items at the silent auction total $1149.83. With added sales from Steve Ashley's mugs, the total raised was $2331.83.
